

The New Jersey "Do Not Call" law, has provided citizens with the peace and quiet they deserve. I do not want to receive unsolicited telemarketing calls, even from firms I may have done business with recently. I only regret that it didn't also include all such calls from politicians and charities. Please don't enact any regulations or legislation which will weaken the New Jersey "Do Not Call" law.